130	CLERK'S REPORT
130.1	There is concern from residents that parking of cars and vans at Town End makes it difficult at times for large vehicles and tractors to pass. This was discussed, and has been brought up in the past with the Police, who unfortunately informed us that there is no action which can be taken.
130.2	The roads in the village have a number of large potholes. All residents are encouraged to report these to the highways department, however the Clerk has been asked to do so this month. Action AJ
130.3	DALC subscriptions are due. Two rates are now offered, a higher one to include training. It was agreed to opt for the lower rate and pay for any training as required. Action AJ
130.4	Forthcoming elections were discussed. Clerk to discuss roles and requirements with Chair outside of this meeting. Action AJ & JF
130.5	The Annual Parish Meeting, open to all residents will be held before the April Parish Council meeting. This must be advertised in the Contact magazine and on the Notice Board. Action AJ
